

To Be a Teen After God's Own Heart Series The grass aint never greener on the other side. Its what you make of it on this side that counts, Grandmother Belle frequently says to Gine. But Gines desire to experience how the other side lives drives her to join La Paz and travel on a three month-long modeling tour. What will life throw her way as she innocently goes out with Chris? All along the journey, Gine wonders who her mother is the mother she last saw when she was five years old, but who has kept up with her whereabouts. Will Isis, the pole dancer, be able to unlock the mystery to her mothers disappearance? Gine begins to ask more questions and is determined to get some answers.
