

The Art of Autism 2016 Wall Calendar includes art work from 11 autistic artists and a special submission by Temple Grandin. Calendars will be shipped Sept. 25, 2015. The Art of Autism Wall Calendar is a collaborative project between The Art of Autism, an international collaboration of people on the autism spectrum and organizations who serve them, and Grants Eco-Art. Grant Manier of Grants Eco-Art is an inspiring young artist who creates art work from recycled material. A highlight of the calendar is international days of recognition for people who have diversities, environmental days, and days of kindness and tolerance. This calendar of amazing beautiful pictures show the great things that people on the autism spectrum can do. Temple Grandin The Art of Autism 2016 calendar is a small , yet beautiful representation of the extraordinary talents of individuals on the autism spectrum. The calendar pages of artwork, together with important dates that highlight and celebrate people with disabilities and ecology awareness create the most unique calendar that I am happy to share with friends, family, and local business. Cynthia Drucker, Founder, Artists for Autism The ART of AUTISM supports artists with autism to spotlight, develop and grow their talents. This autsome 2016 AoA calendar helps us to support building their futures. Be a part of the ART! Keri Bowers, Normal Films
